From the desk of Fr. David

In today's Gospel we see Our Lord bring a dead girl back to life.

Jesus said to Jairus, the leader of the synagogue and the father of the little girl, "Do not fear, but only believe."

Jairus shows great faith; he trusted even when the situation looked hopeless, in spite of all the odds against him. Do we trust in the Lord as Jairus did, or do we trust more in other things?

It is easy in today's world, full of attractions and distractions, to turn away from God or to forget Him or neglect Him. Maybe, we trust more in ourselves or in money, property, good health, or a career. As long as we have all these things, we don't need to worry. The truth is, we are made for greater things than simply a comfortable existence in the here and now. We are made for eternity and eternal life.

Today's readings shed light on the meaning of Christian Death. From the very beginning of Christianity, Christians have understood death to be a passage to heaven, to eternal joy and happiness. Our Lord tells us that the pleasures of this world are as nothing compared to the joy and happiness that lies before us in heaven. To know Jesus Christ is an infinitely greater thing than to have great knowledge, money, power and success.

Fr. David Ludwig

give us grace to labor for."

Communion Under Both Species Impacted for the Summer

Our parish has resumed the distribution of the Precious Blood at Mass, both on weekdays and weekends. This has required an increase in the number of Extraordinary Eucharistic Ministers for the distribution of both, the Body of Christ and the Precious Blood during Holy Communion.

However, with the arrival of summer and many of our volunteers away on vacation during July and August, we may face challenges in providing the Precious Blood at all Communion stations at all our weekend Masses. We apologize and ask for your understanding during this period.

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time
June 30th, 2024

In today's Gospel reading, someone believed that they would be healed from their sickness if they touched Jesus' clothes. The person touched Jesus and was instantly healed! But Jesus knew that power had gone out of Him, so He asked who had touched His clothes.

Who was cured? Follow the dark lines and see whose line points to Jesus.
